Non-Disclosure Agreement

Set into effect this _____ day of _____, 2010

_____(hereinafter the 'Receiving Party'), and Bonnie Bogovich and Elizabeth Rishel (hereinafter the 'Creators'), shall agree upon specified confidential information regarding project Evenings in Quarantine: The Zombie Opera.

1. 'Confidential Information' as used herein shall mean any information marked or deemed 'Confidential' relating to above entitled subject matter disclosed by the Creators to Receiving Party, which information is not in your possession prior to said disclosure, or which is not part of the public domain.

2. Receiving Party agrees not to disclose Confidential Information, whether written, oral, or otherwise, to any other party except as may be necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it has been disclosed, but shall not be disclosed without advising any other party of this AGREEMENT and the restrictions herein, and having such party agree in writing to the restrictions in this AGREEMENT, if applicable.

3. Receiving Party shall notify in writing the Creators of any disclosure to any other party and a copy of their agreement to this document, if applicable.

4. 'Confidential Information' shall cease to be confidential, however, if it subsequently becomes part of the public knowledge or literature through no fault of Receiving Party, or which comes to you later without binder of secrecy from a third party.

5. Receiving Party may present information deemed necessary, within the restrictions listed above, regarding above mentioned matter to production and distribution companies for such production and distribution on behalf of himself and the Creators.

6. In no way shall project matter mentioned above proceed or be sold or licensed, in whole or in likeness thereof, without inclusion or prior written approval of the Creators.

In witness thereof, the parties hereto have executed and agreed upon this AGREEMENT on the day first above written.
